

WILSON SAYS NATION STANDS BEHIND PACT

Makes Address From Rear of Train at Mandan, N. D.—Thinks Country Wants Peace Guarantee.

HE SPEAKS NEXT AT HELENA

No Night Address Scheduled Last Night; Will Make an Appeal for Ratification in Montana.

ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Sept. 10.—To a crowd which surrounded his private car today at Mandan, N. D., President Wilson declared a week of travel in the heart of the country had convinced him that the nation stands together for an international guarantee of peace.

"I am glad to get out to see the real face," he said, "to feel the touch of their hands and know, as I have come to know, how the nation stands together in the common purpose to complete what the boys who carried their guns have done over the sea."

"We may think that they finished that job, but they will tell you it they did not; that unless we see to it that peace is made secure they will have the job to do over again and we in the meantime will rest under a constant apprehension that we may have to sacrifice the flower of our youth again."

"The whole country has made up its mind that that shall not happen, and that, after a reasonable time is allowed for unnecessary delays we will get out of this period of doubt and unite the whole force and influence of the United States to steady the world in the lines of peace. And it will be the proudest thing and finest thing that America ever did."

"She was born to do these things, and now she is going to do them."

The speech was cheered by the crowd, which included many Indians.

At a number of other short stops during the day Mr. Wilson came out on the rear platform to shake hands, but on the whole it was a day of rest while his train sped westward across the North Dakota plains. The only speech was at Bismarck, the state capital, during a short two-minute stop and for the first time since he left Washington a week ago there was no night address.

The presidential special picked up a second engine late today as it began to climb into the Rockies on one of the longest continuous pulls of its 1,000-mile journey. The next scheduled stop after Bismarck was at Billings, Montana, where the president will speak before returning home.

Tonight he will address a meeting at Helena, Montana. The short speech at Mandan was the second and the president has made from the rear platform since the trip began following the advice of his physician, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, Mr. Wilson has spared his voice for the longer meetings and has taken precautions after his addressees not to take cold.

AD CLUB LEADER GETS INVITATION

Mechanic Believes He Is Immune From Stickup and Thieves

Exhibit Showing Neosho Plan Will Be Feature of Convention of Associated Advertising Clubs.

An official invitation to merchants and other business men of Tulsa to attend the annual world convention of advertising, at New Orleans, September 21 to 25, has been received from the headquarters offices of the associated advertising clubs of the world, in New York city, by Arlie J. Crisp, president of the Tulsa Ad club.

"One feature of especial interest will be an exhibit showing how business men of Neosho, an unincorporated Missouri city, combined to create a wider trading territory, through interstate commerce.

In addition to this exhibit, there will also be an address in one of the sessions of the community advertising department of the advertising convention, in the course of which a man who has been part of the Neosho movement for ten years, will tell in detail just what has been done, and how, and what results have been accomplished.

The great interest which has been manifested in the Neosho plan has caused the program committee of the advertising association that a complete exhibit be made for the benefit of other communities.

MERCER IS AT BALTIMORE

Belgian Prostitute Given Welcome on Visit to Cardinal Gibbons.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, was welcomed to Baltimore this afternoon by the three archbishops, the three priests from the railroad station to the residence of Cardinal Gibbons, whose guest he will be until next Wednesday. Standing on the steps of Cardinal Gibbons' residence, he blessed the people of the city, an unusual event in religious annals in this country.

After the visitor had blessed the throng, Cardinal Gibbons hastily called for the people to cheer and they did so, while the organist, asked to play and girls from the parochial schools the crowd roared forth in the singing of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." Governor Harrington, Mayor Broome of Baltimore and a committee of several hundred citizens greeted and accompanied Cardinal Mercier through the streets.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS GET VALUABLE LOOT

Police Arrest Two Boys in Connection With Robbery of Trunk Factory.

Expensive leather goods valued at $1,000 was the loot stolen last night from the Reliable Trunk factory, at 418 West Third street. Two weeks ago Sunday night he was stopped within own yard by a negro man and woman. The man put the cold muzzle of a six-shooter against his ribs, took his pocketbook containing a note for $15 and checks made to him totaling $81.11 together about $22 in currency. Whitman reported it to the police.

Not hearing anything from his report he became quite peevish the other day when some tools were taken from his sleeping porch.

But he was in glee yesterday evening. He had received a letter containing his pocketbook with the contents and checks. At noon when he went home his tools had been returned to their original position.
